

Frankenstein and The BQE Project

A 71-minute performance melding two art forms - a horror film onscreen and a musical troupe onstage

Saturday, October 24 at 8:00 PM

The Guggenheim Auditorium

Tickets $10 / Reservations required: 797-5100

The BQE Project is a seven-piece chamber ensemble that offers original music scores to both silent and sound films. Their innovative mix of original musical themes and enhanced live accompaniment fills the theater with an energy that makes classic cinema come to life in whole new ways! This recently-digitized 'talkie' is the original 1931 classic horror film. Please call to reserve now!

"Tom Nazziola (from BQE) is doing astonishing compositional work with silent films, from the drama of The Golem to the comedies of Charlie Chaplin and Buster Keaton. His talent is rare. His contribution indispensable." --Peter Travers, Rolling Stone
